

Day of Pentecost
Service of Holy Communion

June 5, 2022

10:00 AM

Prelude: Carolyn Stephens

Welcome and Church Life Rev. Liz Jensen

 Call to Worship

Pastor: When the day of Pentecost came the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting.

People: Come, Holy Spirit! Breathe new life into our souls.

Pastor: They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them.

People: Come, Holy Spirit! Light a holy fire within our hearts.

Pastor: All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them.

People: Come, Holy Spirit! Place the praises of God upon our tongues.

Today's Message: Language We Understand

Service of Holy Communion

Unison Prayer of Confession: Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

* Closing Hymn # 259 Breath on Me, Breath of God

 Benediction

SCRIPTURE READING

Acts 2:1-8 and 12-21

When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. 2 Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. 3 They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. 4 All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them.

5 Now there were staying in Jerusalem God-fearing Jews from every nation under heaven. 6 When they heard this sound, they came running to see what it was all about, and they were bewildered to hear their own languages being spoken by the believers. 7 They were beside themselves with wonder. "How can this be?" they exclaimed. "These people are all from Galilee, 8 and yet we hear them speaking the languages of the lands where we were born!

12 Amazed and perplexed, they asked one another, "What does this mean?" 13 Some, however, made fun of them and said, "They have had too much wine."

14 Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd: "Fellow Jews and all of you who live in Jerusalem, let me explain this to you; listen carefully to what I say. 15 Some of you are saying these people are drunk. It isn't true! It's much too early for that. People don't get drunk by nine o'clock in the morning. 16 No, this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:

17 "'In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams. 18 Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy. 19 I will show wonders in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood and fire and billows of smoke. 20 The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the coming of the great and glorious day of the Lord. 21 And everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.'
